

DREAM SEQUENCE - OUTER SPACE

Chauncey walks on the outside of a metal, circular space station. He pushes off and flows into the void. He becomes illuminated by the sun.

His moment is interrupted by a little voice.

BEN

Chauncey! Chauncey!

END DREAM SEQUENCE.

EXT. PATTON FAMILY HOME - BACKYARD

Chauncey continues gazing at the sky before waking out of the trance.

BEN

Chauncey, you okay? Chauncey!

CHAUNCEY

I'm fine.

BEN

What you dreaming about?

CHAUNCEY

I'm just thinking about outer space would be like.

BEN

Outer space? Is that a new playground?

Chauncey glances over at Ben in disbelief.

CHAUNCEY

No, I'm talking about the moon. Other planets. The stars.

BEN

You mean there's other places besides Earth?

Chauncey goes back to staring at the sky.

CHAUNCEY

Yeah, and I want to go and explore it.

BEN

Can I come?

CHAUNCEY

(Sighing) I guess so if you promise not to be annoying.

BEN

I'm not annoying.

CHAUNCEY

You can be one.

Ben pouts at Chauncey's comment and glares at him.

CHAUNCEY (CONT'D)

If you're going to be like that I won't let you come with me.

BEN

(Whining) I still wanna go. Please, please, please!

CHAUNCEY

I guess you can still come.

BEN

Yay!

Chauncey and Ben grin at each other positioning their feet firmly in the sand.

CHAUNCEY

Ready to countdown for lift off.

Ben nods to start the mission.

CHAUNCEY (CONT'D)

Okay! 4...3...2...1, Lift off!

The boys swing forward with great force launching themselves higher and higher with each swing.

DREAM SEQUENCE - OUTER SPACE

Chauncey and Ben are seen floating in space in their astronaut suits while tethered to the space station.

BEN

looks around with wonder in his eyes as

CHAUNCEY

looks back and forth between the sun and the moon.

BEN

look at

CHAUNCEY.

BEN

Wow! It is so much fun up here! I can see our house from here!

CHAUNCEY

I know! We can even touch the stars and the moon!

They touch the stars around them as they drift into each other. Chauncey spins and sees a flying fiery rock coming towards them.

CHAUNCEY (CONT'D)

Look out! There's an asteroid!

BOTH

(Screaming) Woohoo!

BEN

That was cool. Let's do it again!

CHAUNCEY

Maybe not. But we go inside the space station and look around.

BEN

Okay.

The boys make their way towards the space station as space debris floats around them.

CHAUNCEY

presses a red button on the station. He floats into the station while floats around in space for a moment.

BEN

CHAUNCEY

pulls him in by oxygen hose.

BEN (CONT'D)

Chauncey, you're no fun.

Chauncey glances at Ben for a moment before taking off their astronaut suits.

CHAUNCEY

Fun or no fun. My duty as a big brother is to watch out for you.

BEN

scoffs at Chauncey's words before a grin appears on his face.

looks at

CHAUNCEY,

who's smiling as well.

The boys look around the station and find the living quarters. They see personal items floating around.

The two boys float onwards to labs filled with unusual plants, experiments and creatures.

Chauncey goes forward to touch an experiment when he is interrupted by hearing his mother's voice call out.

MOM

Boys, it's time for lunch!

CHAUNCEY

What did you say, Ben?

BEN

Boys! Lunch is ready.

Chauncey is shocked by the sound of his mom's voice.
